@ DSM2 that was a user who was too smart (and too good!) For this forum. At least he has Curage, like this CMMChris or similar, at that time gross "Say Godby" or similar.

With his young years he felt well trodden on the tie and then wanted to be pityed.

Now he is neither active.

As a former member of this strange forum, I noticed for a long time what's going on here and finally, the @ DSM2, whom I greatly appreciate, also noticed it.
